 - School Transport Bus Escorts;
 - Tutors (Literacy Service, Community and Adult Education, etc.);
 - Non-teaching staff in Youth Encounter Projects (YEPs);
 - Any other staff employed directly by a recognised school or ETB and who were comprehended by Circular 70/2010, with the exception of grant-funded Secretaries, Caretakers and Cleaners who are covered by separate Circulars.

5. It is important to point out that the fact that affected staff employed by recognised schools or ETBs come within the definition of “public servant” solely for the purposes of this legislation and this does not alter their employment status in any other respect.

National Minimum Wage Increase to €9.15 with effect from 1 January 2016

6. Employers should note that under the terms of the National Minimum Wage Order 2015 (S.I. No. 442 of 2015) the national minimum wage will increase to €9.15 per hour with effect from 1 January 2016. This rate of €9.15 is inclusive of the increases under the Lansdowne Road Agreement/ FEMPI Act 2015 outlined in this Circular i.e. the 2.5% or 1% increase as applicable is applied to the individual’s salary on 1 January 2016 in the first instance and if the individual’s hourly rate is below €9.15 following this calculation, then the individual’s hourly rate is further increased to €9.15. A worked example is included below:

Worked Example:

A Cleaner is employed for 38.5 hours per week (including meal breaks) for a full year on an annual salary of €17,377. The individual’s hourly rate is therefore €8.65. On 1 January 2016, the individual’s salary is increased by 2.5% under the LRA/FEMPI Act 2015. This results in an annual salary of €17,812 which equates to an hourly rate of €8.87. As this is below the national hourly minimum wage, the individual’s salary must be further increased so that the hourly rate equates to €9.15, giving a total final annual salary of €18,382.

7. It should be remembered when complying with the National Minimum Wage Act that break periods (whether paid or not) are included for the purposes of ensuring that a person is receiving the minimum hourly rate of pay.
