Hamish & Milo Wellbeing Resources

The comprehensive intervention programme that supports social, emotional and behavioural needs and the SPHE curriculum, that is having 'a profound impact' on primary-aged children's mental health and wellbeing

We provide the framework, language and content to have courageous conversations with children about emotions, painful life experiences and traumatic events. Our resources cater for all class levels from Junior Infants up to 6th Class and explores grief and loss, sadness and self-esteem, explosive feelings, anxiety, peer relationships and conflict amongst other important topics that we know affect children's mental health.

We provide a complete programme of resources, training and support for the work of the newly announced Educational Wellbeing/ Mental Health Practitioner role in schools, through whole school preventative approaches and psychoeducation support.

- ✓ Complete time-saving package - everything needed from detailed session plans, impact tools, wellbeing journals, parent leaflets, motivational resources and sock puppet kits, plus access to planning tools, activities and templates on our Hub!
- ✓ Empower staff - equip Special Education Teachers with greater confidence to deliver vital emotional literacy programmes with empathy, insight and awareness.
- ✓ Trauma Informed and Attachment Aware content - the importance of relationships is at the core, to help children gain transferable emotional literacy skills for life and learning.
- ✓ Cost-effective investment in children's wellbeing - reusable resources that cost just cents per child.
- ✓ Demonstrate impact - digital resources for SET support plans.
- ✓ Reduce exclusions and improve wellbeing and attendance - interventions increase emotional regulation and positively influence educational engagement.
- ✓ Capture children's voice - ensuring children feel heard, understood and empowered to share their experiences.
- ✓ Training and support - free and bespoke options plus Voyager a five-day Level 3 Wellbeing in Education Award accredited by NCFE.

Supporting schools in Ireland with trusted, quality assessments

Our assessments are designed based on the best academic research and extensive trialling, ensuring their reliability and accuracy, providing instant reports that enable schools to make quick and effective decisions.

Our range of assessments includes:

- Cognitive Abilities Test (CAT4) provides an objective perspective on the abilities of individuals, key groups and cohorts
- New Group Reading Test offers a reliable way to uncover reading ability and need in as little as 30 minutes
- Progress Test Series pinpoints strengths and weaknesses in students' maths and English and science
- Pupil Attitudes to School and Self (PASS) helps schools understand students' attitudes toward learning and school.

Additionally, we offer a range of assessments specifically tailored to students with special educational needs (SEN). One such assessment is WellComm, which quickly identifies students needing speech and language support

'A beautifully designed keep-sake. Also a great way to involve everyone at home.' – Elizabeth Byrne, sixth class teacher

The Souvenir of My Confirmation Year journal is the latest addition to the Grow in Love series.

- This colourful, fully illustrated journal contains activities and reflection exercises that will help to consolidate what the students are taught in the Grow in Love programme during their Confirmation year. You may choose the book relating to either Fifth Class/P7 or Sixth Class, depending on which year your class is celebrating Confirmation.
- Students will love completing this journal and it will serve as a wonderful personal record of their Confirmation year to treasure and share with others.
- New lower pricing for September 2024
