

Supporting Each Other: A guide to best practice for the effective partnership between Principals and Parent Associations

'Supporting Each Other' is a guide to best practice for the effective partnership between Principals and Parent Associations. This document is the result of a collaborative approach to promote the effective partnership between the Parent Association and the school in line with the Education Act 1998. The document supports an ethos of transparency and openness between all members of the school community.

The publication can be downloaded from www.ippn.ie